Postlude "Pathetique Sonata, Second Movement" Beethoven

What will be the judgment a century hence concerning the lorded works of our favorite composers today? Inasmuch as nearly everything is subject to the changes of time, and - more's the pity - the fashions of time, only that which is good and true will endure like a rock and no wanton hand will ever venture to defile it. Then, let every man do that which is right, strive with all his might towards the goal which can never be obtained, develop to the last breath the gifts with which the gracious Creator has endowed him, and never cease to learn. For life is short, art eternal.

-Ludwig Van Beethoven

YOU ARE INVITED to Praisepalooza Sunday, July 11th, 4:00PM

Invitation from Amelia United Methodist Church.

Concert is indoors at 4pm and the picnic with food trucks follows outdoors at 6pm! Free food vouchers for the first 200 attending the concert! Hope you all can make it!

At Praisepalooza this year, there will be an opportunity for the children to play handbells. All children are welcome to participate. They are colored bells, the director will hold up cards and they ring when their color is on the card. There will be no practices for this before the event, children will just be asked to come up just prior to performing. For planning purposes, if you could give us a rough estimate of how many children may be participating, it would be greatly appreciated. There will also be a "Jerusalem" dance challenge. The dance will be taught at the event, but if you want to search the name of the dance in Youtube—you could be a step ahead! (secretary@ameliaumc.org)

Altar Flowers

To sign up to purchase flowers as a memorial to, in honor or in celebration of a person or event for a Sunday call the office with your dedication wording and any requests of type or color of flowers in the arrangement. Arrangements typically run $25.
